

Document Management System

Software Development Life Cycle

	Internal Quality Audit
	3 rd week of January
	17	18	19	20	21	22	23
Planning
Developing the system framework
Identifying the sub-modules
Analysis
Determining the flow of the system
Identifying the required business rules
Gathering the manuals and documented information
Design
Developing the database design
Defining the structure and data inputs of the system
Designing the system's screen layout
Implementation
Deploying the system through a web hosting service
Testing and Integration
Users and admins test the system functionalities
Monitoring and inspecting the system to ensure that it meets the quality standards

Maintenance
Maintaining system functionalities
Ensuring constant updates and improvements
Providing necessary repairs and fixes						